Bello Machre Wins A 2022 Top Workplace Award

The Award was Presented by The Baltimore Sun

ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY, MARYLAND – Bello Machre, a Maryland-based non-profit organization offering a lifetime of loving care, guidance, and opportunities for people with developmental disabilities is thrilled to announce that it was awarded a 2022 Top Workplaces honor by The Baltimore Sun.

Earlier this year, employees were sent a survey to give feedback about what it is like to work at Bello Machre, from satisfaction and engagement to the company's values and work culture. Thanks to an overwhelming number of responses, Bello Machre earned a ranking among other top-tier companies in the midsize employer category.

On Thursday, December 8, several Bello Machre employees attended the Top Workplaces awards ceremony at Grand Lodge of Maryland, Hunt Valley. Guests enjoyed a happy hour and delicious dinner, followed by the awards presentation.

"This award means so much to us, remarked Julie Provan, Vice President & COO of Bello Machre. "It would not have been possible to win it without the support of our incredible employees."

"Knowing that our employees love working here is the real reward," adds Kimberly McClearn, Director of Human Resources.

"Bello Machre prides itself on its outstanding work culture where teamwork is always encouraged. Employees feel recognized with birthday and anniversary celebrations, and questions and concerns are always met with helpful feedback and meaningful dialogue. It's these values that makes Bello Machre a proud winner of the Top Workplace award."
